

Where do Your Congressional Candidates Stand on Abortion?

Aliscia
Andrews

Jennifer Wexton

Abortion on Demand

There have been 61 million abortions since the 1973 Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision legalized abortion on demand.

Aliscia Andrews is pro-life. She opposes abortion on demand, and she supports protection for unborn children.

Jennifer Wexton supports a policy of abortion on demand, which allows abortion for any reason. She has a 0% pro-life voting record in Congress, as rated by the National Right to Life Committee.

Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act

The Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act would protect unborn children by prohibiting abortion after the point in pregnancy at which the unborn child is capable of experiencing great pain when being killed by dismemberment or other late abortion methods.

Aliscia Andrews supports the bill that would prohibit abortions after when the unborn child can feel pain.

Jennifer Wexton opposes legislation that would prohibit abortions after when the unborn child can feel pain.

Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act

The Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act would require that a baby born alive during an abortion be afforded the same degree of care that would apply to any other baby delivered at the same gestational age.

Aliscia Andrews supports the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Jennifer Wexton voted against the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Taxpayer Funding of Abortion

Prohibiting taxpayer funding of abortion saves lives.

Aliscia Andrews opposes the use of our tax dollars for abortion. She also opposes taxpayer funding of abortion providers.

Jennifer Wexton voted to use our tax dollars for abortion. She also voted in favor of taxpayer funding of abortion providers.

Conscience Protections

It is essential to each health care provider's Constitutional, civil and human rights that individuals are neither forced to perform, nor retaliated upon or otherwise discriminated against for refusing to participate in, procedures that violate their consciences, including abortion or assisted suicide.

Aliscia Andrews supports health care workers' freedom to refuse to participate in abortions and other procedures that violate their consciences.

Jennifer Wexton opposes protecting the conscience rights of health care workers.
