Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act

The Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act would protect unborn children by prohibiting abortion after the point in pregnancy at which the unborn child is capable of experiencing great pain when being killed by dismemberment or other late abortion methods.

John Collick supports the bill that would prohibit abortions after when the unborn child can feel pain.

Bobby Scott voted against legislation that would prohibit abortions after when the unborn child can feel pain.

Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act

The Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act would require that a baby born alive during an abortion be afforded the same degree of care that would apply to any other baby delivered at the same gestational age.

John Collick supports the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Bobby Scott voted against the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Taxpayer Funding of Abortion

Prohibiting taxpayer funding of abortion saves lives.

John Collick opposes the use of our tax dollars for abortion. He also opposes taxpayer funding of abortion providers.

Bobby Scott supports using our tax dollars for abortion. He also voted in favor of taxpayer funding of abortion providers.

Conscience Protections

It is essential to each health care provider's Constitutional, civil and human rights that individuals are neither forced to perform, nor retaliated upon or otherwise discriminated against for refusing to participate in, procedures that violate their consciences, including abortion or assisted suicide.

John Collick supports health care workers' freedom to refuse to participate in abortions and other procedures that violate their consciences.

Bobby Scott opposes protecting the conscience rights of health care workers.
