

Where do Your Congressional Candidates Stand on Abortion?

Ben Cline

Nicholas Betts

Abortion on Demand

There have been 61 million abortions since the 1973 Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision legalized abortion on demand.

Ben Cline is pro-life. He opposes abortion on demand, and he supports protection for unborn children. He has a 100% pro-life voting record in Congress, as rated by the National Right to Life Committee.

Nicholas Betts supports a policy of abortion on demand, which allows abortion for any reason.

Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act

The Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act would protect unborn children by prohibiting abortion after the point in pregnancy at which the unborn child is capable of experiencing great pain when being killed by dismemberment or other late abortion methods.

Ben Cline voted for the bill that would prohibit abortions after when the unborn child can feel pain.

Nicholas Betts opposes legislation that would prohibit abortions after when the unborn child can feel pain.

Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act

The Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act would require that a baby born alive during an abortion be afforded the same degree of care that would apply to any other baby delivered at the same gestational age.

Ben Cline supports the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Nicholas Betts opposes the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Taxpayer Funding of Abortion

Prohibiting taxpayer funding of abortion saves lives.

Ben Cline opposes the use of our tax dollars for abortion. He also voted against taxpayer funding of abortion providers.

Nicholas Betts supports using our tax dollars for abortion. He also supports taxpayer funding of abortion providers.

Conscience Protections

It is essential to each health care provider's Constitutional, civil and human rights that individuals are neither forced to perform, nor retaliated upon or otherwise discriminated against for refusing to participate in, procedures that violate their consciences, including abortion or assisted suicide.

Ben Cline supports health care workers' freedom to refuse to participate in abortions and other procedures that violate their consciences.

Nicholas Betts opposes protecting the conscience rights of health care workers.
